

since."

The political wire pullers are already at work constructing a slate or slates for the coming municipal election, and knowing ones tell us that the A. P. A. (whatever that may be) proposes to take a hand in voting if not in formulating tickets. This latter society, association or club, whichever it may be, is said to be very strong in the city already and is mustering new recruits every day. A gentleman who claims to know informed us a few days ago that no man could be elected to any office at the coming city election unless he had the endorsement of the A. P. A. We don't know whether it is an anti-Populist association or an anti-protective association or what, but it seems as if it expects and intends to cut a figure in city politics.
