

announces that he will return on that day to assist County Attorney Cobb in the prosecution. Carving sets—something nice—at E. N. Dunning's, corner Sixth street. The physicians of this city have organized among themselves a protective association, in some respects similar to the merchants' protective association. It now has sixty-two members. H. T. Corson is secretary of the association. Nice, clean kindling wood, delivered in K. C. Kas., $1.25 and $2.50 per load. Tel. 1061.	It v hibition he had dred th magicia them t bank sl rail in with t After on a co
---	---

1893-12-16-KansasCityGazette-p1-[PhysiciansProtectiveAssn]

Clipped By:

ianhmunro

Fri, Mar 31, 2017