

SAVAGE IN DENUNCIATION.

KANSAS REPUBLICANS, MILITIA AND DEPUTIES ATTACKED.

Governor Lewelling Approves of a Most Bitter Scoring of the Opponents of the Populists—Treason and Infamous Plotting Are Openly Charged.

TOPEKA, Feb. 20.—The following was given out at noon to-day by the governor's stenographer, having been prepared by a Populist editor and being in the main approved by Governor Lewelling:

Now that comparative quietness reigns and Republicans are clamorous in their boasting and affect to believe that they have gained their point, it will be well to make inquiry and note the facts.

Such inquiry will establish that the Populists have never lost sight of the one great essential in this contest and come out of this imbroglio secure in its position. That essential is "the preservation of the Populist house."

To suppress this, to destroy it, to wipe it out of existence, was the dastardly and far reaching purpose of the Republicans, when they precipitated the late insurrection. Could they have accomplished the suppression of that house they would have thwarted all possibility of any reform legislation. They know that laws passed by the assistance of that house are valid. They know that the supreme court that would declare otherwise would have to reverse all respectful precedent, immolate itself to the basest partisan demands and face a wave of public indignation unparalleled since the days when the notorious Judge Tressilian was followed to the scaffold by an outraged people, where they beat him with staves to make him ascend, and then exulted at his just but shocking execution.

CORPORATE GREED THE CAUSE.

Corporate greed is determined to prevent the enactment of the reform measures of the Populists. No supreme court in these days of suspicion and imputations against the integrity of courts—cares to assume the responsibility of declaring those laws void. One happy solution presented itself to the nefarious and atrocious schemers and that was the extinction and suppression of the Populist house. They did not merely intend to prevent it from meeting in representative hall, but they intended to prevent it from meeting anywhere—to deprive it of existence, so that no official acts could flow from it.

The first of a series of contemplated steps to this end was the attempted arrest of the chief clerk of the Populist house. This was to be followed by the arrest of a sufficient number of Populist members in order to break the quorum of the Populist house. Resistance by the Populists to the execution of this Republican scheme precipitated the armed Republican insurrection.

Now that peace has been declared it should be borne well in mind that the Populists have carried their point and have wrung from the Republicans a solemn pledge to cease all further attempts to molest or attempt the extinction of the Populist house. The compulsory vacation of representative hall may not be pleasant to the personal feelings of Populists, but it is the price the Populists pay for believing that Republicans have no part in loyalty or respect for law or official oaths.

THE MILITIA BITTERLY SCORED.

When the governor found himself confronted by the sheriff of Shawnee county and a horde of drunken, ruffianly deputies, said largely to be from Missouri, present, he also found that the militia of the state (on whom he had to rely) were almost to a man stained through and through with treason. The commanding officer was the first to make known his contempt for his official oath and that he would not

Topeka on account of the course during the war for the possession of the legislative hall, and they declare that what may be the outcome of the vote of the organization of the house notwithstanding the organization of the house nothing voted to the state house fund.

Speaker Dunsmore declared that he would vacate his seat and make a personal fight if necessary to defeat the appropriation that would be of any advantage to Topeka.
