DOWN THE LINE ON BELFAST.

McCafferty Uncorks Another Good Thing at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., May 19. - Clear, warm weather, track and a large attendance were the attractions at the fair grounds to-day. The boys had a tough time picking the lucky numbers. McCafferty was waiting by two lengths. The race—Bellamy, all furlongs, Keady, Adams, Matthews, 5 to 1, with odds by Adams. Bellamy, all furlongs, 7 to 2, backed by Adams.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

The Kansas City Ball Club Opens at Home To-morrow.

Pitcher Gragg, who has signed with the Kansas City club, arrived in the city yesterday. He is a fine looking player, and promises to prove a very strong man for the club. Catcher Whalen, who has put his name to a Kansas City contract will arrive here to-day. Manager Lucas knows just what Whalen can do, having had him with him last season and recommends him as an exceptionally strong man.

The Kansas City club has proven by its two games at Topeka that it can play baseball for the Topeka nine is a good club, and a large crowd will probably welcome the team to-morrow at its first appearance at home. The game will be with the Topeka club, and Frank Pears, who is playing a very strong game this season, will probably be in the box for Kansas City.

ANOTHER GAME FOR THE CLUB.

Kansas City Wins a Hard Fought Game at Topeka.

ENFORCING THE GEARY LAW.

Nothing Definite Yet About the Programme of the Government.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Assistant Secretary Curtis, of the treasury department, will have charge of matters connected with the Geary law, so far as it relates to that branch of the government.

He is already at work preparing plans of procedure, though the policy of the department has not yet been announced. It is understood, however, that it will be some time before active steps can be taken, and, as every day's delay will bring the expected session of congress nearer, it is probable that no undue haste will be observed.

It is pretty certain that the funds available for the execution of the law will be used to carry it out as far as possible.

Not a great many Chinamen can be deported with $30,000, and it is rather difficult to determine where to begin and what classes will be taken first.

The probability is that the first selections will be made in San Francisco among the unregistered Chinamen who are known to the police of that city as highbinders or as criminals. Their deportation cannot be deemed offensive to their own country in an international sense, though it may regret exceedingly to receive them.

TRAIN ROBBERS GET NOTHING.

The Desperate Starr Gang Holds Up a Train at Ponca, I. T., but is Disappointed.

GUTHRIE, I. T., May 19.—An attempt was made to-night by the Starr gang to hold up passenger train No. 403 on the Santa Fe at Ponca.

Four masked robbers flagged the train and when they made a demand for money, Conductor Glazier refused to surrender. These desperadoes, it is known, have been loitering around Ponca for the past several days.

The conductor ordered his engineer to pull out and left his flagman in the hands of the thieves. Deputy Marshal Heck Thomas was also left at Ponca. Several shots were fired at the night operator by the robbers.

Why Not Commit to Memory?

In an age so full of busy activity as the present, so diffused with and interpenetrated by the spirit of utilitarianism, committing to memory seems rather behind the times, and is, except in juvenile recitation rooms, almost obsolete. Yet there is something to be said in its defense.

It is a great convenience, if nothing more, says Harper's Bazar, to have the skeleton of a historic period, in the shape of a few important events and dates, firmly in one's mental possession, locked, so to speak, in a handy drawer or cabinet of the brain, and ready to be produced at a moment's notice. Given such an outline to aid memory, and that facile servant easily and deftly fills it up with the throbbing flesh and blood of manners, customs, incidents and episodes. Any one of us may lose hearing or sight, wholly or partially, and arrive at days when it is a comfort unpeakable to remember delightful and helpful stories, verses which we have loved, and chapters from the treasure house of the sacred Word. The benefits of the mental chamber, similar to...
