

THEY WENT TO JAIL.
Pugilists Davis and Kirk Unable to Pay Their Fines.
James Davis and Al Kirk were arraigned in police court yesterday morning for prize fighting. Win Marsh and Al Kasten were also arraigned as seconds. Kasten's trial was continued until this morning and Marsh was discharged, Judge Leland holding that while the evidence tended to indicate that he was acting as second there was a doubt on the point, especially as Marsh denied the charge. In dismissing him Judge Leland gave him a few words of admonition concerning the matter. Davis and Kirk were both adjudged guilty, and a fine of $50 each was placed against them, and in default of payment they were locked up. The crowd was captured by a squad of police in charge of Sergeant Ikerd Thursday night while having a spirited little "set-to" in a cellar on Riverview avenue near the Kaw river.	affair. a logue a a recep Washin bers of Nation in the at 7:30. GRSV The C been o Ed Blu urer. Dr. D avenue W. A. The 1 from S

02-18-1893-DailyJournal-p5-TheyWentToJail