STOCKS OF ALL KINDS FALL BECAUSE OF VARIOUS REPORTS.

Gold Shipments Next Week and Western and Eastern Bank Troubles Give the Bears Good Grounds for Hammering—Railroads Especially Affected.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The fact that there would be further gold shipments next week induced liberal selling of stocks shortly after the opening this morning and serious losses were made. The Western bank failures also tend to disturb confidence and some round amounts of long stocks were sold. Sugar declined 2½ to 82¼; Quincy 2¾ to 82½; Rock Island 2½; Manhattan 2¼ to 131; Cordage 13¼ to 9¾; Cordage preferred 1 to 39. Ohio Southern sold at 31¼ against 42 the last reported sale.

After 11 o'clock the market was weaker than ever, even the favorable bank statement failing to check the selling movement and further important amounts of stocks were sold out at rapidly declining prices. The gold shipments for next week's European steamers were placed at fabulous amounts and there were hints of fresh financial complications. The Grangers bore the brunt of the attack and sold at the lowest figures for a long time. The market closed weak in tone.

Rumor mongers were so persistent in their talk about Hollins & Co. that the head of that house felt compelled to deny the reports in official form, and sent a letter to F. K. Sturgis, president of the exchange, characterizing the rumors as being malicious. As customary, the chairman called the members to order and started to read the letter. When he reached the name of H. B. Hollins & Co. the excited ones among his hearers immediately jumped to the conclusion that it was the usual notice of a suspension and in less time than it takes to tell it the street had that Hollins had failed. It took ten minutes to straighten matters.

GOLD SHIPMENTS TO BE RENEWED.

The talk of enormous gold shipments next week, owing to high rates of discount abroad and the strength of sterling exchange, were enough to start sales of long stocks alone. All sorts of extravagant estimates were made about next week's gold movement. Undoubtedly a good deal will be shipped, but the board story of exports of 6 million dollars struck exchange dealers as being very wide of the mark. Nevertheless there was considerable unloading of long stock, the decline being accelerated by the Western bank troubles.

The John Goode company will begin on Monday to extend its cordage plant to such an extent that it will be fully capable, as far as room is concerned, of fulfilling Mr. Goode's offer to take the National Cordage company into his fold.

William H. Hambley, After Being Run Over, Dies on His Way to the Hospital.

William H. Hambley, aged 67 years, who lived at 410 Agnes avenue, was fatally injured this forenoon by being run over. He was employed in hauling rock for Contractor Henry Johnson, who has a quarry in the Agnes avenue ravine. About 10 o'clock he was driving down a steep place in the road with a heavy load, when the wheels dropped into a rut and he was thrown from his seat and under one of the wheels, which passed over his body just below the ribs. There was only a slight bruise on the old man's body, but the wagon was heavily laden and the wheels crushed him internally. He was taken to the Central police station and at noon was sent to the city hospital, but died in the ambulance on the way.

Mrs. C. P. Jehu Avoids One Car to Be Cut Down by Another.

In stepping from one track to another, to avoid an electric car on the Elevated road near the crossing at Sixteenth street, Kansas City, Kas., at 10 o'clock last night, Mrs. Ella H. Jehu was struck by a car she had not seen and killed. The body was badly mangled. Mrs. Jehu was the wife of Cornelius P. Jehu, a grocer at the Sixteenth street crossing of the "L" road. She was on her way to a drug store three blocks away when the accident happened. The body was carried to her home, 2059 North Sixteenth street, where Coroner Stevens viewed it this morning. The dead woman was 35 years old. She had one child. The body will be sent to Stafford, Kas., Mrs. Jehu's former home.

Fairmount Park's Opening To-Morrow.

The opening of Fairmount park will take place to-morrow. The First Artillery band will give a concert and the Kansas City Boat club will open its new club house. Much work has been done during the past winter towards beautifying the park. Among the features are the enlarged lake, bathing beach, boating, bowling alleys and the picturesque cafe.

Last of the Griffin-Brown Contest.

Judge Slover this morning dismissed the contested election proceedings of F. W. Griffin to oust Marcy K. Brown from the office of prosecuting attorney, Mr. Griffin having failed to deposit $2,500 as security for costs. Mr. Griffin to-day said that he would carry his contest no further.

The John Goode company will begin on Monday to extend its cordage plant to such an extent that it will be fully capable, as far as room is concerned, of fulfilling Mr. Goode's offer to take the National Cordage company into his fold.

The extending of the facilities of this company announced so soon after the great slump in Cordage and the National Cordage company's receivership is causing no end of discussion and speculation. The rumors of the consolidation of the weaker with the stronger interest, which were so abundant on the street recently, have become rife again and more pronounced than ever.

The John Goode company and the National Cordage company have been strong rivals in every line of the industry except the manufacture of binder twine. The determination of the John Goode company to enter into the manufacture of this article has seemed to give the rumors much appearance of truth.

ITS AFFAIRS IN BAD SHAPE.

Columbia Bank Directors Mixed Up—Many Small Banks Merely Branches.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The directors of the closed Columbia National bank met yesterday to consider resumption of business but found matters so mixed that they could decide nothing.

It is said that Simri Dwiggin, president of the bank, came here from Attica, Ind., two years ago and, with G. W. Wiggins and J. M. Starbuck, bucket shop proprietors, started the United States National bank with $50,000 capital. When the bucket shops were closed by law, Wiggins went to New York and Dwiggin increased the bank stock to 1/2 million, putting in an alleged gilt edged gold mine as assets. This did not pan out and Dwiggin and Starbuck consolidated the United States with the Columbia National and started in to establish a large series of country banks, loaning the money to put them on their feet. The Columbia was soon loaded up with country bank stock and Dwiggin organized the United States Loan and Trust company to handle this stock and float it through bonds.

The branch banks which have so far failed are the Ottawa County bank at Elmore, O., organized by Starbuck; the Commercial bank, of Brookston, Ind.; the bank of Dunkirk, Ind.; the bank of Greenwood, Ind.; the Commercial bank of Morristown, Ind.; the Commercial bank of Russiaville, Ind.; the Citizens' bank of Edwardsburg, Mich.; and the Union bank of Richland, Mich. Other banks connected with the Columbia are:

In Indiana—State bank of Ambia, capital $25,000; State Exchange bank of Argos, $25,000; Citizens' State bank of Roswell, $10,000; Union State bank of Bremen, $12,500; Citizens' State of Cherruboo, $25,000; Clay County bank of Clay City, $25,000; Commercial bank of Lowell (Dwiggin & Co.); Commercial bank of Macey (not incorporated); Becker, Paxton & Co. of Morocco; Hancock, Pritchard & Co. (co-partnership of New Palestine; H. Light of North Judson (co-partnership); Citizens' State bank of Rochester, $25,000; Commercial bank of Walkertown (Horatio Nelson); Central State bank of West Lebanon, $25,000; People's bank of Windfall, $40,000.

In Illinois—Baron's Bank of Byron (Dwiggin, Starbuck & Co.); Farmer and Merchants Bank of Casey; Bank of Lynn, East Lynn (O. A. Ross); Georgetown bank (Dwiggin, Starbuck & Co.); First National bank of Heepston, $50,000; Peoples bank of Martinville; Farmers and Merchants of Mount Carmel; State bank of Oran, $25,000; Farmers bank of Ridgefarm, A. W. Boyden & Son's bank of Sheffield; Spring Valley National bank, $50,000.

In Ohio—Bank of Brookville; Citizens bank of Lewisburg; Union Bank company of New Holland,
