THE Times and Star having engaged in a damnable conspiracy to rob the people of a free bridge, and having sold their influence for money, are now howling about fee grabbers. The people are "on to" these rascals.

THE Times and Star having been subsidized by the railroad company and having joined a conspiracy to rob Jackson and Clay counties of a free bridge are crying "stop thief" to divert public attention from the real thieves.

GOVERNOR LEWELLING did the proper thing in compromising the trouble at Topeka and saving the state from a lasting disgrace. The republicans were willing to do anything to carry out their wicked purposes. Governor Lewelling can congratulate himself on the termination of the trouble. Let the battle be fought at the polls.

02-18-1893-KCMail-p4-[EditorialComment]