
The City Circulation of THE MAIL exceeds that of any morning paper.

KANSAS CITY is entering upon a new era of prosperity.

THE selection of Mr. Olney gives the corporations a fair show in Mr. Cleveland's cabinet.

THE salary bill would have passed the legislature if it had not been the pet measure of a couple of suspected newspapers.

KANSAS CITY is not half so dirty as is represented by the Star. The impression prevails that the Star is getting even with some of its enemies by setting the city scavenger after them.

02-24-1893-KCMail-p4-[EditorialComment]