

ARMOURDALE.

Much Complaint Against the Obnoxious Joint at Riverview.

Considerable complaint is being made against the joint located at Fifth street and Central avenue, owned by Tom Lyons. Since the L road and West Side Street Railway companies have commenced transferring passengers there the joint has become a public nuisance. The police will be asked to close the place at once. The transfer man on a Sunday stands in the shade of the building occupied by this notorious joint. A gang of loafers of the lowest type congregate in front and have little or no regard for ladies who are compelled to pass within a few feet of the door to obtain transfer tickets.

It was in this resort that Patrolman Frank Nash was assaulted by thugs some months ago when he attempted to arrest one of their number.
