

Yung Sing, who was arrested last week by Constable King for conducting an opium joint at 309 Walnut street, was given a jury trial in Justice Worthen's court yesterday and fined $100. He promptly took an appeal. Sing stated that he kept the opium for his own use, but the jury could not see it that way.

08-31-1893-KCDailyJournal-p3-YungSing