

THE KARNES SCHOOL DROPPED.

It Will Not be Used by White Children Next Term Because of an Odd Circumstance.

The Karnes school at the corner of Troost avenue and Fourth street was dropped from the list by the Board of Education Saturday night and no assignment of teachers made for it. Three years ago this school was in a populous white district and had a corps of ten teachers. Since then colored families have been moving into the neighborhood and the white inhabitants have been moving away. The result has been a complete change of races which enabled three teachers during the last year to easily attend to all the white children who came to the Karnes school. It is the plan of the board to transfer all the teachers and pupils of the Garrison school to the Karnes school and make the latter an institution exclusively for the use of colored pupils. The Garrison school will be temporarily abandoned until such time as the board shall deem its reopening necessary for the accommodation of the school children of the city.
