

PROF. GREENWOOD HONORED.

The Excellence of the Kansas City Schools
Also Paid a Compliment.

Prof. J. M. Greenwood departed yesterday for Pittsburg, Pa., where he will respond to an invitation of the Teachers' institute to deliver a course of four lectures upon the subject of "Teachers and Teaching." The Pittsburg institute is the largest holding regular sessions in the United States, and its annual meeting is one of the leading educational events of Pennsylvania. The invitation extended Prof. Greenwood honors not only the gentleman himself, but the schools of Kansas City as well. He will be absent a week or ten days.
