

It is reported from Washington that the Chinese government has already announced an intention to take no official notice of the enforcing of the Geary act. This is the part of wisdom. There is nothing in the Geary law to call for reprisals. It merely provides a means for this government to maintain a record of all Chinamen within its borders. It looks like discrimination against a particular race, but the Chinese populace will take revenge out on missionaries and merchants without government action.

05-18-1893-KCTimes-p4-ReportFromWashington