BANKER LITTLE WILL BE ARRAIGNED ON THE CHARGE OF MURDER TODAY.

A Fierce Legal Battle Will ensue After the Prisoner Has Been Arraigned—The Plan of the Defendant's Attorneys—Fire-Bugs Cause the Destruction of a Large Brick Building on Thirteenth Street—An Amended Transcript Filed in the Sorter Murder Case—Minor News Notes and Suburban Gossip.

The opposing attorneys in the celebrated Little murder case will engage in a fierce legal battle in the Court of Common Pleas today, the result of which will be watched with interest. The first case on today's docket is that against Little, and the State's attorneys will insist upon it being tried at once. County Attorney Cobb stated last evening that the witnesses for the State had all been subpoenaed and that as soon as Little was arraigned the State would announce that it was ready for trial.

This action will necessitate the defense showing its hand and then the battle will begin. Mr. Little's attorneys have not been asleep since the preliminary hearing, and from all indications they are prepared to make a bitter fight in the interest of their client today. They will first endeavor to have the information against Little quashed on the grounds that he was not given a fair preliminary hearing. During the trial in the Justice's court the attorneys for the defense attempted to show that uncommunicated threats had been made against the life of Little by Attorney Johnston, but Justice Betts refused the admission of such testimony. This angered Little's lawyers, and they brought the case to an abrupt close. In the event that the plea in abatement is overruled an effort will be made to get the case continued for one term, and in case this fails a motion will be made for a change of venue as a last resort.

Little's attorneys believe that they will win on the first proposition and that the case will be sent back to the justice for a second hearing. The attorneys for the State feel confident that the court will decide that the preliminary is legal, and that Judge Anderson will neither grant a continuance nor a change of venue.

The change of venue will be asked for on the grounds that the people of this county have heard so much about the case that they have formed an opinion in regard to it and that it will be impossible to get a jury of unprejudiced men. In the Sorter murder case three years ago which did not attract near so much attention as the Little case, one whole week was consumed in the District court before a jury was secured. Over 500 men were examined before twelve men could be found who had not read about the case or formed an opinion.

It has been almost a month since Banker Little was outside of the County jail or, in fact, permitted even to leave his cell. Prison life is beginning to tell on him. His complexion now is almost as white as the corpse of the man whom he killed on July 19. His eyes are deep sunk in his head and his physical condition in general is greatly impaired on account of his close confinement. The cell which he has occupied since his preliminary trial is five by eight feet in dimensions. In this is his bed and one chair. He uses the rest of the space in exercising and he devotes several hours each day in walking back and forth. Just why Mr. Little has not been granted the same privilege in regard to exercising as other prisoners, some of whom are far more dangerous, the sheriff alone can explain. The court-room will no doubt be densely crowded with spectators this morning when he is brought in, and this will be very humiliating to the prisoner, but he will probably hail with delight the hour that the prison door swings open and he is permitted once more to breathe the pure air.

Mrs. Sharkey Violently Insane.

Mrs. Peter Sharkey, who recently became insane, is now confined in the County jail. About ten days ago she was found almost starved to death at her home, 722 Armstrong avenue. She was so weak that she had to be carried to the hospital on a stretcher. Since then she has brooded over her domestic difficulties so much that she has gone violently insane and was placed in the County jail yesterday for fear that she would do some violence. Mrs. Sharkey's two small children, who were also nearly starved, were taken to the Poor farm and are now doing well. The unfortunate woman will be sent to the insane asylum.

To Collect the Securities.

Suits were begun yesterday in Justice Betts' court in the name of Wyandotte county by the Board of County Commissioners against A. L. Burgard, L. C. Woolsey and J. H. Woolsey on promissory notes given by them for the sum of $100, $25 and $17 respectively. These notes are part of the paper which was given County Treasurer McLain by the defunct Citizens' bank to secure the deposit of $48,000 of county money placed by him in the bank. As the notes fall due and are not paid, suits will at once be brought and the money which is collected on them will be turned into the county treasury to make up the deficit which has been caused by the tying up of the county funds.

In the Criminal Court.

In the Criminal court yesterday John Trumm was placed on trial on the charge of stealing 100 meat hooks from the Harris Packing company. The case was given to the jury last evening. James Seafus entered a plea of guilty to the charge of stealing horses from Henry Johnson and Jackson Donald and was sent to jail to await sentence. In case some disposition is made of the Little murder case this morning the case against Mink Morrow, charged with assaulting Tom Love with intent to kill, will be called for trial.

A Pleasant Reunion.

A very pleasant reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Griffith, 618 Oakland avenue, Monday. For the first time in over twenty years all of their living children and grand children came together. There were present W. E. Griffith and two sons of this city, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Griffith and three sons of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Griffith and son of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith and two daughters of Grand Island, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Benedict and son of Lawrence.

A Motion for a Rehearing.

County Attorney Cobb will endeavor to secure a rehearing in the Abbott road injunction case in the Supreme court. A motion has been filed for a rehearing and it will be argued one week from today. This case was tried last spring and the Supreme court handed down a decision declaring the Buchanan road law unconstitutional. By this decision about $700,000 worth of road improvement certificates held by Eastern capitalists were rendered worthless.

Called a Mass Meeting.

A call was issued yesterday for a mass meeting to be held at Dunning's Opera house tomorrow evening. The object of the meeting is to discuss the advisability of placing a Citizens' ticket in the field in opposition to the Republican ticket. The projectors of this plan believe that every element now opposed to the "auction" ticket can be united and that a ticket can be placed in the field which will sweep the county from one end to the other.

A Bold Highwayman.

A lone highwayman at 9 o'clock last night entered the grocery store owned by Mrs. Hunter, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets on Minnesota avenue, and demanded what money she had. He was given the contents of the cash drawer, about $10. Then he turned around and walked away. The bold robber was a white man and made no effort to disguise himself. The matter was reported to the police and they are working on the case.

SUSAN ANTHONY SPEAKS.

A Big Turn Out of Local Suffragists to Hear Many "Pointers."

Miss Susan B. Anthony addressed the regular meeting of the Equal Suffrage club. She also gave them a few "pointers" in woman's suffrage politics. Among other things Miss Susan said: "What we want is that the Kansas constitution may say that every woman's opinion is as good or worth as much as man's. Whenever a man tells you that at the polls is not the proper place for a woman, you just tell him, that the only place where they go without either wife, mother or daughter. That is just why women should be given their rights and they would soon purify the surroundings about the polls." The speaker paid a high compliment to the local association. She wanted more clubs to organize and a house to house canvass made. "Every member should pledge herself to obtain at least one convert," she said. She offered many suggestions, some of which will prove important. During the past a few local prejudices have arose which evidently reached her ears, for she told the ladies that above all they must learn that ama- jority rules and that minority must give up. She advised the ladies to scatter tracts, work with delegates and educate themselves on these lines. She didn't want anyone to de- nounce a convention which failed to cham- pion their cause. She told of her experi- ences in Dakota. She was in favor of strictly enforcing the non-partisan rule. She did not expect Mrs. Lease, Mrs. Gauger or Mrs. Johns to devote their whole time to suffrage. She paid them a glowing tribute, and also to Mrs. Nicholas, Mrs. Lucy Arm- strong, Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Taylor, who have faithfully worked for the cause in days past. She also pointed out the many advantages the Kansas women have to start with.

At the close of Mrs. Anthony's remarks the following officers were elected for the en- suing year for the local association: Mrs. Fannie Slusser, president; Mrs. D. Maher, vice-president; Jennie Tanner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. D. Downs, recording sec- retary; Mrs. S. A. Haight, treasurer. Dele- gates to the state convention, which con- venes in Holton next November: Mrs. J. Fulton, Mrs. D. T. Bradford, Mrs. D. Maher, Mrs. A. Baker; alternates, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Lewis.

FIRE BUGS ABROAD.

Ray's Hall Fired at an Early Hour and Completely Destroyed.

A destructive blaze broke out in J. S. Ray's two-story brick building at the corner of Thirteenth street and L. road at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire was undoubt- edly started by incendiaries. The upper apartments were used for lodge purposes and one of the ground rooms was occupied by a grocery store and coal office. The grocery store was owned by William A. Shaw and H. D. Banks the coal office Mr. Ray slept in the other store room. The F. A. association, A. P. A. and A. O. U. W. lodges occupied the upper room. The building was burned to the ground because there was no water-plug within a mile. Shortly before the fire was discovered Mr. Ray saw three men pass the building. He next heard them in Shaw's store and also tramping around in the lodge room above. He had no means of protection and was afraid to go out and frighten them away. Mr. Ray is of the opinion that the men carried some of the groceries away and then fired the building to hide their crime. Ray's loss is $3,000 on the building with $2,000 insurance. Shaw's stock was valued at $250. He carried $200 insurance. Bank's loss is estimated at $100. The lodges lost their entire paraphernalia which was fully insured.
