The case of the state against Banker A. W. Little, charged with killing B. E. Johnston at Kansas City, Kansas, will be called for trial in the Johnson county district court under a change of venue on Monday. Judge Burris has set the case specially and it will take at least two weeks to try it. Each side is subpoenaing its witnesses to appear Monday. The defendant has filed mortgages to the amount of several thousand dollars on his Kansas City property in order to raise money with which to fight the case.
