

damage case against the Standard Oil company.

SUCCESSFUL IN THE LAW.

A. W. Little Shows the Same Fidelity to His Clients That He Does to His Host of Friends.

One of the most prominent citizens of Kansas City, Kansas, to day is Hon. A. W. Little. Mr. Little was formerly president of the Armourdale bank and is now successfully practicing law on the South side. He is an accomplished gentleman of versatile talents, with abroad intellectuality that serves him well in the profession he now follows. He comes from one of the best known families of Kentucky and possesses all the free hearted sociable characteristics of the natures of the Clue Grass state. Mr. Little and his charming family have a large circle of friends in this city whose fidelity the most trying of ordeals could not shake. This is an endorsement that few men have to be proud of. He is faithful and true himself and these traits mark his dealings with his clients at law whose numbers are rapidly growing.

1894-12-31-KansasCityGazette-p3-SuccessfulInTheLaw

Clipped By:

ianhmunro
Fri, May 5, 2017