

THE SANTA FE TRAIL.
 Graphic and Exciting Stories of the Indian and the Buffalo.

W. H. REYNOLDS AS FRONTIERSMAN.
 He Crossed the Plains from Kansas
 City to Santa Fe in Three Perilous
 Days. Many Men Were Killed in the Case of the Indians.

In the days of the pioneer, W. H. Reynolds of Kansas City, Kansas was the discoverer and conductor in charge of a party of men who crossed the plains from Kansas City to Santa Fe. This wonderful feat is by Colonel Henry Reynolds, recently published by the publisher, a copy of which has been loaned to our readers, contains the following interesting account of his journey from Santa Fe to Kansas City. The book is full of thrilling and interesting stories of the Indians and the buffalo, and is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of these strange elements of our western life.

Here is the reference to our neighbor, William H. Reynolds, who served later as the head of Wyandotte county, and in his own words has been so important to our readers.

Mr. W. H. Reynolds, a friend of mine who was a driver and messenger throughout the Santa Fe trail, and who crossed the plains in a three-day run, has been good enough to write me the following interesting story of his trip to Santa Fe in the winter of 1870.

I was born in Iowa, and my father, a pioneer, crossed the plains in the fall of 1848, and he was one of the first to cross the plains to Santa Fe. I was born in Iowa, and my father, a pioneer, crossed the plains in the fall of 1848, and he was one of the first to cross the plains to Santa Fe.

The first time I crossed the plains was in the fall of 1870, and I was one of the first to cross the plains to Santa Fe. I was born in Iowa, and my father, a pioneer, crossed the plains in the fall of 1848, and he was one of the first to cross the plains to Santa Fe.

LEAVENWORTH NEWS.

Mrs. Magdalena Bender became sad for divorce yesterday from August Snyder. Her husband abandoned her and took her property, and she had no money to live on. She had no money to live on.

The jury in the case of the woman who was accused of poisoning her husband, returned a verdict of guilty. The jury in the case of the woman who was accused of poisoning her husband, returned a verdict of guilty.

IN KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI.

Continued from the City Across the Missouri Line.

"Hi Capitan," at the Court.
 "Cousin Tipton," at the Court.
 "The Girl I Left Behind Me," at the Grand.

It is interesting to see and old books in the hands of the young people of this city. It is interesting to see and old books in the hands of the young people of this city.

Thomas Clark was yesterday afternoon taken before Judge Withers to the criminal court and sentenced to six months in the penitentiary. Thomas Clark was yesterday afternoon taken before Judge Withers to the criminal court and sentenced to six months in the penitentiary.

George Stilling, a coal vendor, who tried to sell a barrel of coal, was taken before Judge Withers and sentenced to six months in the penitentiary. George Stilling, a coal vendor, who tried to sell a barrel of coal, was taken before Judge Withers and sentenced to six months in the penitentiary.

TRAVELING SALESMAN.—To sell soap and articles, a traveling salesman was arrested for selling soap and articles, a traveling salesman was arrested for selling soap and articles.

1898-01-22-KansasCityGazette-p1-TheSantaFeTrail

Clipped By:

ianhmunro
Sat, May 13, 2017

