

A Negro Sold for Vagrancy.

FAYETTE, Mo., March 15.—George Winn, a worthless negro of this place convicted of vagrancy, was yesterday sold for six months in accordance with the vagrant law of the state to R. S. McCampbell of Glens Springs for $20.

KC Star March 16, 1893