

The negroes of Howard county, Mo., five of whom had been sold as vagrants in the past year, are talking of suing the county for damages, the vagrancy law having been declared unconstitutional.

The 18-year-old daughter of the Rev. Mr. Langston, a country preacher living northeast of Guthrie, Ok., was crazed by attending the wedding of a young man to whom she had once been engaged.

NegroesOffHowardCounty-KCStar-June23-1893-p1