

HELD UP BY THE DALTONS.

A Teamster Robbed of $1 by Bill Dolan and Dynamite.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 16.—Ed. Higginbotham has been engaged in hauling lumber from this city to Blackwell, Ok., for Charles M. Hunt. While he was returning to the city yesterday he met two men who halted him and pulled their Winchesters down on him and demanded his money. Higginbotham told them $2 was all he had, and the highwayman took $1 with the remark: "There is nothing small about me; you can keep the other dollar." The men rode away then. Higginbotham recognized them as Bill Dolan and Dynamite, two of the Dalton gang.
