

THE GANG HAD GONE.

Officers Upon the Track of the Outlaws Fail to Corral Them.

Special to the Kansas City Times.

WAGONER, I. T., Sept. 30.—There has been no developments in the attempted capture of the Dalton gang. The twenty-five deputy marshals who came in on yesterday's train, last night went out to the supposed camp of the outlaws only to find that the gang had been warned of their approach and left for seen riding through the north part of town this evening going in an eastern direction, but at this time there was not a man in sight.
