

DALTON AND HIS GANG.

They Parade the Streets of Stillwater, Ok., Unmolested.

Special to the Kansas City Times.

GUTHRIE, OK., Oct. 14.—Bill Dalton, the noted outlaw for whom over $10,000 reward is offered, walked the streets of Stillwater with his pals, Bill Doolin and Texas Newcomb, last evening. All three wore silk ties and were stylishly dressed, Dalton walked boldly along, while Doolin and Newcomb would skulk into doorways every few minutes. Many Stillwater folks knew the bandits, but even the officers when told were afraid to molest them. Deputies from this city left for Stillwater this evening. Dalton's mother lives near Kingfisher, where he was nursed after the battle at Ingalls.
