

MEMBERS OF DALTON'S GANG.

Dynamite Dick and Tusla Jack Pay a Visit to Tusla, I. T.

TUSLA, I. T., Oct. 19.—Dynamite Dick and Tusla Jack, both members of the Dalton gang, were seen on the streets yesterday evening. They were heavily armed. Merchants here are on the lookout for another robbery. Both of these men were with Bill Dalton recently, when Deputy Marshal Shadley and posse were killed, and both were badly wounded.

Another hold-up occurred on the Stillwater road west of Red Fork yesterday. The robbers, Dalton and Doolin, became communicative with their victim. They said: "This country is getting too full of farmers and we are going to get a little money together and hunt a more favorable locality for our 'business.'" Deputy marshals are after them and a battle is expected.
