

BILL DALTON IN CHICAGO.

So Says Mr. Zach Mulhall, Who Knows Him Very Well.

Mr. Zach Mulhall of Mulhall, Ok., is in the city. Mr. Mulhall has probably as extended an acquaintance among the "bad men" of the Territory as any man in the West. He laughs at the idea that Bill Dalton was in the recent fight at Ingalls. He says he saw Dalton in Chicago last Thursday, and that he had been there for two weeks.

Some time ago Bill Dalton proposed to Frank James that they open a saloon in partnership in Chicago. James would have nothing to do with him, and since that time Bill has been loafing about Chicago, spending the most of his time around Buffalo Bill's Wild West show.

Furthermore, Mr. Mulhall says, Bill Dalton is a big, over-grown fellow who wouldn't fight anybody, but he likes notoriety, and for that reason will not deny the stories that have been published about him.
