

COMING TO OWSLEY'S DEFENSE.

"Push" Leaders Preparing to Fight the Battle of the Vote Recorder.

The "push" is making preparations to defend Recorder of Voters Owsley. There have been daily consultations this week between Chief Deputy Fred Fleming and "push" leaders in an office in the New York Life building, and it is hinted that if Owsley is required to defend the legality of his office before the supreme court money to hire able legal talent will be forthcoming—presumably from the same sources that gave "Pinky" Blitz an array of high priced lawyers in his trial for vote repeating in the federal court. Prominent Democrats have also been asked to write letters to the supreme court judges urging that Owsley's office is too essential to the success of the Democratic party to be abolished. Several men who have been asked to write to the judges have, it is said, refused to become parties to such a proceeding.
