

He also asked information in regard to several peculiarities of Francis'—as to whether they existed or not in the suspect, and requested that he be held until the letter was answered.

The sheriff says he intends to leave no stone unturned, and this is the proper resolution. The very stone left unturned is the one which is going to conceal the negro brute.

If the second description sent in is at all closely allied to Francis, an officer from here will be sent to Springfield post haste.
