

7	Deaths Harvest, the Oldest man in Mis-	A
3	souri.	"Sc
.	Mr. Washington Dale the aged	A l	pioneer whose earthly career closed	For l	last Friday, had reached a point on	A
.	lifes highway that made him an
.	historic character. He was older
r	by five years than the Federal con-	I
.	stitution and had seen his country	cat
t-	grow from the struggling colonies	I f	under the confederation to that	for
.	mighty and powerful union of State	I
.	under the present constitution he	ven
.	had the rare good fortune to have	I
.	so lived as to command the respect	Jud
t-	and confidence of all who knew	I
.	him. In politics he differed from	fri
al	the masses of his race by believ-	mb,
.	ing in men instead of party. So	I e	pronounced was he in his views	aln
e	that his sympathies were never	lt i ll	with the Republican party. He	j n	was at one time the valet of the	col is	noted Jno. Murrell in Kentucky.	ru is	his remains were laid away in Union	1.
.	cemetery where they will await the	2.
er	summons of Him who guides and	3.
e-	rules the destinies of men. To his	4.
id	family and friends we extend our	th
t-	sympathies. He was 109 years old.	th
a-		