ENCOURAGEMENT FOR STRIKERS.

Pres Howard, a colored man, was shot and badly injured at Wyandott on the night of the 24th, by Captain George G. Keith, of the steamer E. H. Durfee. Howard was trying to get the Durfee's crew to strike for higher wages and as there were four steamboats at the levee being unloaded had he succeeded it would have greatly incommoded the boat. The marshal of Wyandott was sent for but Howard would not stop on account of this. Captain Keith came ashore when Howard drew a pistol on him. Captain Keith was too quick for Howard for he fired inflicting a serious wound in Howard's arm and side. No arrests were made.
