

19 and 20, under the management of the Jefferson City Gun Club; open to all amateurs.

Joseph Ford, a colored roustabout, had the flesh shot off the index finger of his right hand on the steamer Montana, at Lexington, a few days ago by Captain George Keith. The trouble grew out of a refusal to work by a number of the roustabouts. Ford shot at Captain Keith twice, but did not hit him.

The committee appointed by the Court to make a preliminary report on the condition of the State Savings Bank at St. Jo.
