

Spread Eagle, Gratton.

WAFTED FROM THE WHARF.

Sand bars beginning to show.
Rain still falling and business dull.

The Dolphin came in from St. Genevieve towing the barge Scott.

The Sam Roberts got off for the Ohio River with five barges in tow.

The R. S. Hayes brought up from Lower Mississippi three barges and scow Jennie Florence.

The Chouteau and Helena lashed together take the Knights of Honor down the river to-morrow afternoon.

Parties wishing to charter the Will S. Hayes for excursions, should hurry with their applications, as the dates are being spoken for by a great many parties.

Capt. George G. Keith will take his 'daring' Dacotah to Kansas City to-morrow. Get your freight down early and encourage boat owners to keep up opposition to railroads.

If any one doubts the number of pilots out of work let his eye be cast around the corner of Fourth and Olive streets. Pilots all the way from 22 to 65 years of age can be seen waiting, like Micawber, for something to turn up.

1885-05-15-StLouisPostDispatch-p3-WaftedFromtheWharf

Clipped By:

ianmunro

Sat, Apr 9, 2016