The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Monday says: Mrs. Lucretia M. Wright, widow of the late Captain Robert Wright, died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Warren, 2802 Gamble street, at the age of 80 years. Her husband was a popular river man in the 50's, and was one of the pilots of the steamer James H. Lucas when she made the famous run from St. Louis to St. Joseph in two days and twelve hours, a record that beat all others by eight hours. Mrs. Wright was the grandmother of Captain Bob McGarry, a well-known pilot. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The pall-bearers will be Captains R. J. Whitley, George G. Keith, Joseph Nansen, John Gillam, Frank Dozier and Hunter Ben Jenkins.

The Pittsburg Post says: The local inspect-
