

Mrs. Anna Potter, of Kansas City, Kan., was among the honored guests of the silver reception of the Home for the Friendless yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Potter is a woman whose fame had preceded her, having been one of the nominees for the office of mayor at the last city election in her town. Socially she is a very pleasant lady, interesting in conversation, and agreeable in manners. She also bears the stamp of marked character, power and individuality. Her husband, Mr. Eli Potter, accompanied her, both returning to their home last evening.

1893-05-14-LeavenworthTimes-p4-[PotterNote]

Clipped By:

ianmunro

Sun, Feb 5, 2017