

FEARS OF AN OUTLAW RAID.

The Dalton-Starr Gang Said to Be Preparing to Attack Arkansas City.

ARKANSAS CITY, Sept. 15.—A scout rode up from Hollister's ranch in the Osage country this morning and notified all the banks that the remnants of the Dalton-Starr gang were in camp about thirty miles south of here. He said that it was the intention of the gang to raid the banks here to-morrow after the people had left town for the border.

The banks have organized a strong posse to defend their property. None of them will open their doors to-morrow, and in each a guard of several men will be placed, armed with Winchesters.

The bandits' plan is said to be to rob the banks after the rush, relying on the departure of nearly all the men. Nearly every officer on the police force is going to make the run, and the city will be almost wholly without police protection.
